

Call for Artists:
Art Spaces

Saturday, May 4, 10 am to 6 pm
Sunday, May 5, noon to 6 pm

Deadline to apply March 11

You are invited to apply for Art Spaces, The Lawrence Art Guild's second open-studio event, a free, public, self-guided tour of artists' studios and art spaces within Lawrence and surrounding Douglas County.

This is an opportunity to exhibit your artwork in your own home or studio, another artist's space, public art space, or rent display space at Art Emergency (AE) while we entice as many patrons as we can to visit you. Outlets for promotion include but are not limited to: the Guild's website, social media marketing, the Lawrence Times and other advertising outlets.

This is an event for art and fine craft artists. Mediums included are painting, drawing, pastels, mixed media, sculpture, fine woodworking, fiber arts, glass. Artists must be 21 or older and display only their own artwork. Crafters who work from kits are not allowed. If you have a question as to whether or not your media is allowed feel free to email us.
